

2012 Project Berlin – “Turn On, Tune In!”

Opening: 6 September 6pm > 9pm

Exhibition: 7 September > 5 October 2012 – Tue > Sat – 3pm > 7pm

Mommsenstraße, 27 - BERLIN 10629

Artists:

Rosemarie Allers-AR, Amarie Bergman-AU, Dan Crosby-UK, Jeylina Ever-FR, Gionata Gesi Ozmo-IT, Dalila Goncalves-PT, Alexander Kosenkov-RU
Craig LaRotonda-US, Daniel Pesta-CZ, Anne Plaisance-PL, Niels Smits Van Burgst-NL

Here we go! We are at the 5th appointment of the project started the 2 January 2012.

In these six months a huge work has been done. The exhibitions set up in this time found a very good feedback but more, much more have to be done to establish this talent scout project. We are working very hard, harder than ever, in this direction. We hope curators, collectors and galleries take out from our work and use our efforts to discover new artists. We hope to give visibility and help good artists to emerge.

Turn on, tune in!

A chance or opportunity.

A movement or development in a particular direction.

To cause to move around in order to achieve a result.

As usually, freedom and think different are our goals so we borrowed and freely adapted from “The Banned Speech” by Timothy Francis Leary (1920 – 1996) these following sentences:

HEY! PEOPLE! WAKE UP! WAKE UP!

Who's brainwashed you that way

Hey! People! Have you forgotten?

Have you forgotten this ancient message? It's the oldest motto: "Discover the teachers." It does not die over the years.....

It's the message of freedom: drop out, turn on, tune in.

It's the ancient message of warning against slavery.

Your education system is a narcotic, addictive processes to narrow your mind, contract your consciousness, get you to accept this reality, the ridiculous game of the television prop scenario....

....don't be confused.... You must turn on, tune in, keep the cycle going.

Look around you.....

And what do you see? If you see with any clarity, you will record a madhouse.

..... control, power, control.

.....Tune back in from all those big circuses, government buildings, and masonry going up.

That's what's going to happen.

Hey!

Did you hear that?

Everyone who is alive today is at least 2,000,000 years old.

Everyone who is alive today has the complete story of evolution written inside their cellular tissue, and in molecular scripture inside their body.

Now in the next few months there is going to be a period of anguish and conflict, because one thing you must remember, you cannot stop us.

Above all, don't let their chess games, tired games of power, dull your mind. Free your mind, turn on, find a meaning yourself in small groups.

And then what?

They will try and stop you. What should you do?

Yes, turn them on.....